

Virginia Military Survivors and Dependents Education Program Frequently Asked Questions 2022-2023

Overview

VMSDEP is a Commonwealth of Virginia program that provides education benefits to spouses and children of military service members killed, missing in action, taken prisoner, or who became rated by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (USDVA) as totally and permanently disabled or at least 90 percent permanently disabled as a result of military service. Military service includes service in the United States Armed Forces, United States Armed Forces Reserves, or the Virginia National Guard.

The Virginia Department of Veterans Services (DVS) is responsible for managing the program and collaborates with the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia (SCHEV) and Virginia's public colleges and universities to assist survivors and dependents of qualified Veterans in attaining their educational goals.

1. Who are eligible to receive benefits under the VMSDEP?

Tier 1 Eligibility - the student must be admitted to a Virginia public college or university and the spouse or the child (the child must be between the ages of 16 and 29 and there is no age limit for the spouse) of a Veteran who became rated by the USDVA totally and permanently disabled or at least 90 percent permanently disabled as a result of military service and meets the domiciliary requirement as defined in the Code of Virginia § 23.1-608.

Tier 2 Eligibility - the student must be admitted to a Virginia public college or university and the spouse or the child (the child must be between the ages of 16 and 29 and there is no age limit for the spouse) of a Veteran or military service member who was killed; became missing in action; taken prisoner of war; or has been rated by the USDVA as totally and permanently disabled or at least 90% permanently disabled due to direct involvement in covered military combat (includes military operation against terrorism; a peacekeeping mission; a terrorist act; or any armed conflict) and meets the domiciliary requirement as defined in the Code of Virginia § 23.1-608.

2. What benefits are available under the Virginia Military Survivors and Dependents Education Program (VMSDEP)?

Waiver of tuition and mandatory fees for Tier 1 and Tier 2 eligible students. Mandatory fees are defined by each school.

Tier 2 students are eligible for a VMSDEP stipend to offset the costs of room, board, books, and supplies. The amount of stipend is contingent on funding and it is not guaranteed. If available, the VMSDEP stipend is provided once per semester.

3. How do I check on the status of my VMSDEP stipend?

The VMSDEP stipend is disbursed by only the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia (SCHEV). If available, the SCHEV releases the funds to your attending school for allocation. To inquire about the status of your VMSDEP stipend allotment, you must contact your attending school's financial aid department; and if you are informed the VMSDEP stipend is not yet released to the school, you may request the referenced department contact the SCHEV for detailed information pertaining to your VMSDEP stipend disbursement.

4. May I use my VMSDEP benefits after I reach age 30?

No. However, a dependent child above age 29 may request an age waiver to use the benefits in cases in which extenuating circumstances prevented the dependent child from using the benefits before age 30. You must submit substantial evidence and a statement with the following information to request an age waiver due to extenuating circumstances:

- Your full name;
- Your date of birth;
- Your current mailing address; and
- The extenuating circumstances that prevented you from using VMSDEP benefits prior to your 30th birthday.

You must submit the information by email to VMSDEP@dvs.virginia.gov.

5. Can a Veteran's or military service member's stepchild or adopted child take advantage of VMSDEP benefits?

The biological and adopted child of a qualified military service member may take advantage of VMSDEP benefits.

Effective July 1, 2022, the VMSDEP extended to the stepchild of a qualifying military service member who is deceased; AND due to direct involvement in covered military combat, resulted in either of the following:

- Was killed
- Became missing in action
- Became a prisoner of war
- Rated by the USDVA as totally and permanently disabled or at least 90% permanently disabled

The qualifying military service member must also meet the domiciliary requirement as defined in the Code of Virginia § 23.1-608 AND must have claimed the stepchild on his or her tax return or on his or her Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System while serving on active duty.

6. As an eligible child, if I get married while attending school, do I lose my eligibility for VMSDEP benefits?

No, an eligible child's marital status does not affect such child's eligibility for VMSDEP benefits.

7. Who can submit an application for VMSDEP benefits?

You may submit an application if you are the:

- Child;

- Parent/Spouse; or

Yes. VMSDEP benefits apply toward any courses taken by an eligible student within any given semester. The benefits are calculated on a semester basis regardless of the how many coursestaken within a semester.

NOTE: Taking one course within a semester will result in using one semester of VMSDEP benefits; and similarly, taking multiple courses within a semester will result in using one semester of VMSDEP benefits.

27. How is VMSDEP different from the VA’s Dependents Education Assistance (DEA/Chapter 35) Program?

The DEA/Chapter 35 is offered by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs and is not administered by the VMSDEP Office. VMSDEP is provided by the Commonwealth of Virginia and is administered by the Virginia Department of Veterans Services. The DEA program is a program offered by VA and falls under the G.I. Bill benefits umbrella. Eligibility for one program is not automatically equate to eligibility for the other.

28. Can I use my VMSDEP benefits in conjunction with my DEA (Chapter 35) benefits?

Yes, eligible students are permitted to use VMSDEP and DEA benefits concurrently.

NOTE: Eligibility periods for the programs vary; therefore, students should consider their individual circumstances to determine whether to use the benefits simultaneously or separately.

29. If approved for VMSDEP benefits, can I be reimbursed for education expenses paid for out-of-pocket?

Eligibility for the VMSDEP benefit is based upon the date that an application was submitted. It is at the discretion of the college or university whether any tuition and fees applied to the student’s account prior to the VMSDEP benefit authorization date. Please note that colleges and universities are not obligated to refund any monies that have already been paid.

30. What should I do if I have additional questions?

Please contact the Virginia Department of Veterans Services.
